Topics covered at Sex.God.Life include:

- a biblical look at human sexuality, gender and identity
- same-sex attraction: a pastoral response
- healing and restoration for the sexually broken

As key communicator at Sex.God.Life, Simon Riches brings twenty years of ministry experience and a powerful testimony of God's healing and restoration from a life of drug addiction and sexual brokenness. In his role leading Liberty Christian Ministries Inc, (NSW),

Simon works daily with Christian men and women who are grappling with unwanted same-sex attraction, sexual addiction and other sexuality issues. Simon provides support for parents, spouses and friends of those struggling and speaks regularly in churches and theological colleges throughout NSW. Simon lives in Sydney with his wife Cath and their two teenage sons.

Sex.God.Life. will equip those attending to better understand the profound connection between sexuality and Christian spirituality and what it means to live with these powerful forces in a way that honours God and one another. It will also provide practical steps for living as disciples of Christ and supporting those around us who struggle with sexual brokenness.

Sex.God.Life. is for people aged 18+. Under 18's must be accompanied by a parent or church leader who has parental permission.
